Junior College Proposal Study Group to Be Formed

Plans for formation of a junior college study group were announced Tuesday evening by Dr. Albert W. Tritan, president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Project ABIL (Agriculture-Business-Industry-Labor) has been reviewing education needs and a new state law, which requires all areas of the state to be within a junior college district within two years.

ABIL's recommendation is that the Quad-City area either seek to join the existing Lewis and Clark Junior College District or attempt to create a new junior college in cooperation with the Collinsville area.

A larger committee, representing a full cross-section of this community, is to be asked to compare potential costs, services and curriculum under two alternatives. The Tax Information Council is to provide assistance.

The study group will be asked to develop a recommendation by next February. An election then might be sought after all residents have been acquainted with the findings.

In another report at the June board dinner of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night at Charming Co. restaurant, it was noted that ABIL plans to confer this week with Congressman Melvin Price regarding drainage needs.

Thomas Kolesa was presented a certificate recognizing his service to the Chamber and to the Quad-Cities.

Formerly with General Steel Industries and currently acting manager of the Manufacturers Association of the Tri-Cities, Kolesa is moving to New Orleans.

Statewide Air Quality Hearing

A public hearing on proposed air quality standards to supplement emission standards adopted earlier this year will be held by the Illinois Pollution Control Board in the Granite City hall at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

A similar hearing on the proposed regulations was being held in Chicago today.

Robert J. Lawrence, Jr., a member of the state board, will serve as hearing officer. Comments will be received for and against the proposed regulations which would govern air quality standards for particulates, sulfur oxides, hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide, nitrogen oxides and photochemical oxidants.

Board officials said the levels proposed in the new regulations conform to those set by the federal government and are to be attained by July 3, 1975. If adopted, they would allow for utilization of the state enforcement machinery as well as that of the federal government in the event of violations.

Monitoring of the proposed standards would be through use of fixed or mobile sampling stations beyond the premises on which a possible source is located. If adopted, the standards would become effective within ten days after they are filed with the Secretary of State's office.

The standards would be applicable throughout the state. In an explanation of the regulations, Board Chairman David P. Curry said, "We are expected by federal law to adopt and enforce implementation plans to achieve and maintain the new federal standards throughout the state."

Pollution Rise Found In Part of Community

A steadily increasing level of particulate emissions has been recorded at Granite City's five air pollution monitoring stations during the past several months, it was reported Monday night by the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board.

A report showing particulate emission readings ranging as high as 466 micrograms per cubic meter at one sampling during May was presented as the board initiated new efforts to secure a set of working rules and procedures set up in an air pollution control agreement between the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and Granite City Steel Co.

Henry Bienenfeld, chairman of Granite City's clean air board, said the board is concerned by the lack of work rules and procedures which detail operational methods at the steel plant and which could be used to seek out means of reducing particulate emissions.

Bienenfeld said monitoring results show that the greatest increase in particulate emissions was recorded at the monitoring station at 2001 East 20th St. which is in closest proximity to the steel company's BOF plant.

The board instructed its assistant technical secretary, Dr. Reed Sutton, to contact Fred Prillaman of the EPA, legal staff, EPA Chairman William Blaser and David P. Curry, chairman of the Illinois Pollution Control Board, to determine a target date for completion of the state's agreement with Granite City.

News Notes Lottery Fate Is Uncertain

Creation of a state lottery received unanimous support Tuesday from the nine Democrats of the Illinois Senate Revenue Committee, but the fate of the proposal remains in doubt.

The committee's six Republicans, including the two most powerful GOP senators, opposed the plan.

Democrats hold a slim margin in the Senate and hope to pick up Republican support when the issue comes to a final vote.

Lottery advocates say it would provide $100 million annually, with half going to schools and half to other local-level government. It has passed the House, but some senators oppose it as harmful to poor people and as leading to other forms of gambling.

Tickets sold to the public would cost 50 cents each. Initial cost of setting up the lottery system would be $12 million.

Los Angeles — Earnings of A. O. Smith Corp. in the first half of 1972 will be ahead of the comparable period last year, L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, said Tuesday. Speaking to the Los Angeles Society of Financial Analysts, he estimated first-half earnings at $7,650,000 to $7,900,000, or $1.55 to $1.60 per share.

In 1971, earnings in the same period were $7,000,000 to $7,200,000, or $1.35 to $1.40 per share. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 5.)

Astute Police Work Nets Murder Suspects in GC

First degree murder warrants issued by Florida law enforcement officials against two men arrested here last week are the direct result of astute police work by a Granite City officer who took time to follow up a "tip" offered by a friend.

On May 12, it was learned, the suspects were released by Tennessee police officers who had picked up the pair and confiscated a weapon found in their possession.

Richard Elmore Howell, 20, of West Frankfort, Ill., formerly of Granite City and Terry Williams, 35, of Lake Alfred, Fla., are being held in Madison County Jail pending an extradition appeal by Florida officials to Illinois Gov. Richard Ogilvie. The pair refused to waive extradition proceedings here Friday.

Shotgun Shooting

They are charged with the fatal shotgun shooting of William Bogan, 65, of Lake Alfred, Fla., found May 8 after he had been in the company of two men in a tavern.

When Lt. Everett Kelly of the Granite City Police Department first entered the case, Florida authorities had yet to learn the identity of one man and could only place the second one in the area of the murder the day prior to the shooting.

A witness identified the photograph of Williams as a man seen with the victim the day before his body was discovered.

Lt. Kelly initiated the investigation after a local resident reported overhearing a telephone conversation by one of the suspects, indicating possible involvement in a murder in Florida.

Under questioning at the local police station, both men admitted complicity in the murder, Lt. Kelly said.

Further, it was learned, the men had fled from Florida and been picked up by Cheatham, Fla., sent Lt. Kelly, Officer Richard Woods and others to an apartment at 254 Washington Ave., where Howell and Williams were arrested on the basis of the teletype message.

At the time of the suspects' arrest, Lt. Kelly noted, the only firm implication of the pair in the crime was the identification of Williams' photograph by a witness who saw him and another man with Bogan the day before the victim's body was found.

Under questioning at the local police station, both men admitted complicity in the murder, Lt. Kelly said.

Contacts Florida

With only sketchy information to go on, the Granite City officer telephoned Florida law enforcement officials seeking to establish that such a crime had been committed around the time and date learned.

An affirmative reply from the Lake County sheriff at Tavares, Fla., sent Lt. Kelly, Officer Richard Woods and others to an apartment at 254 Washington Ave., where Howell and Williams were arrested on the basis of the teletype message.

Chase Ends In Capture

Two St. Louis men in a wild chase were stopped on the Quad-City area by guards from General Steel Industries before noon Wednesday.

Several autos, including one occupied by three Venice police officers were damaged during a get-away attempt.

The chase started when two men were seen by another GSI guard, Frank Gomez, breaking through the gates on the industrial plant at 14th and State streets.

Gomez notified chief guard Louis Colone and guard Lester Vierling of the auto burglary in progress, and the chase ensued.

Stopped in the parking lot on the overpass were Stanley J. Fondon, 23, the driver, and Ray N. Howard, 27.

The two daylight suspects, with the guards behind, turned at 13th Street to Grand Avenue, proceeded to 15th Street and sped south on Madison Avenue to Third Street.

At that point, the auto struck the driver, who was killed. R. Bennett Jr., carrying Venice Police Chief Ralph Brawley and officer Bruce Fletcher.

Hit Other Cars

The Fondon vehicle careened off of the squad car and struck two others stopped at the intersection, including one driven by Jasper S. Ballew, 68, of 2033 Fourth St., Madison.

The guards continued the chase and fired three warning shots, according to reports by local police departments. When Venice police arrived at the top of the overpass, the guards had the two occupants of a white 1962 auto on the pavement.

Fondon and Howard were taken to the Venice police station and then turned over to Granite City police who charged them with stealing a two-way five-watt transceiver radio set and a black box containing 24 eight-track tapes, all charged $293. Fondon also was charged $293. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 2.)

SIU-SW Flexible, Innovative

(Higher education across the country is in a state of ferment and change, primarily because of society's changing needs. Universities today are not just updated reflections of a generation ago. Southern Illinois University-Southwestern is a new university, only seven years old, but even there the academic scene is changing rapidly. This is the first in a series on some of the changes taking place.)

During a time of upheaval in higher education, SIU-SW is mixing non-traditional academic programs with the standard of four years of course work on campus followed by graduation.

President John S. Rendeman has said academic innovation is not as widespread as he would like because of cutbacks in university budget requests by state agencies.

"In a sense, the period we're in now is the dream deferred," Rendeman said. "It's hard to push forward academically when you're treading water financially."

"What I find healthy, though, is that this university doesn't have a strictly charted course. Certain insecurities can come from that, but I feel it's much, much better to be flexible."

"As long as we can maintain a climate that finds change acceptable, we're doing something positive." Innovative academic ventures at SIU-SW include:

1. Graduate level courses leading to master's degrees in business administration and government, taught in an experimental format off-campus at sites ranging from Washington, D. C., to the Azores Islands to St. Louis.

2. Bachelor and master degree programs that have broadened traditional subject matter barriers by stressing interdisciplinary studies.

3. A curriculum at the new School of Dental Medicine will graduate dentists in three calendar years rather than the traditional four, to alleviate a severe shortage of practicing dentists in portions of Illinois.

4. A five-year Business Division program resulting in SIU-SW students graduating with a college degree in their chosen field while obtaining two years of work experience in that same field.

grams are operating and others are slated to begin later this year, SIU-SW officials are looking to the future. As chief academic officer, Vice President and Provost Andrew Kochman said his most important function is short and long-range academic planning.

The university's ten-year development plan, completed two years ago, already is being revised to reflect the changing change to revitalize higher education. The reassessment of the ten-year plan is to culminate in a re-developed five-year plan.

Lawrence Talliana, assistant vice-president for planning and development, is a key figure in the reassessment. He said program development is dependent on many factors.

"The changing educational needs of the country greatly influence program emphasis," Talliana said.

"The concept of career ladders plays a significant role in the direction higher education is moving. This has implications for all levels, especially for the roll of continuing education. 'This university can't be content with a fixed plan of future development.'"

Kochman, noting SIU-SW opened in 1965, said, "This is one senior university not bound by tradition, and which therefore is able to be experimental in many programs."

"We're viewing programs in terms of instruction, research and public service. These three goals must be looked at as one function, as interrelated."

"Where possible, there will be a stress on community involvement—what can the university do within its mission and goals to meet the needs of the community at large, not just the needs of the academic community?"

Kochman said innovative planning will have to be coupled with fiscal restraint.

late emission readings ranging from 87 to 249 micrograms per cubic meter on five different sampling dates in May at the Monitoring station at Fire Station No. 1.

At monitoring station No. 2 at Lake School, readings during May ranged from 89 to 172 micrograms, and at Station No. 3 at 2001 E. 20th St., ranged from 156 to 466 micrograms.

Readings at station No. 4 at 15th Street and Madison Avenue, showed particulate emissions during the five samplings in May ranged from 185 to 302 micrograms per cubic meter, and readings at Fire Station No. 2 varied from 69 to 204 micrograms.

Dr. Sutton said these readings are high because the maximum allowable particulate emission under pollution control standards is 75 micrograms.

He said particulate emissions show increases at all five monitoring stations during the four months of this year preceding the May readings. Particulate emission readings, he said, show that at Fire Station No. 1, the average emission for the month of January was 105 micrograms, increasing to 111 in February, to 113 in March and rising to 173 for April.

Other monitoring results, averaged by months, were: Lake School station—Average emissions 75 micrograms for January, 70 for February, 88 for March and 128 for April.
Station at 2001 E. 20th St.—179 micrograms for January, 133 for February, 226 for March and 291 for April.

The girl, arrested with the pair, was released without charge. The trio had been here about a week prior to the "tip" being given Lt. Kelly. The police lieutenant noted that Howell has a local record of arrests as a juvenile offender.

Florida authorities must show probable cause that a major felony has been committed to justify extradition of the suspects without their consent, it was explained. Their release to face murder charges in Florida must be signed by the Illinois governor.

Kochman said SIU-SW will be exploring directions to supplement what might be termed the "pursuit of abstract knowledge."

He said there are reasons why the time is proper for the university to concentrate more in the general area of career development programs.

"We need fewer political scientists, economists and sociologists in the old-line, limited sense," Kochman said.

"I see a need for interdisciplinary studies and even the development of entirely new disciplines."

GC Jaycee 'Homecoming' Starts 4-Day Run Today

Nightly admission-free entertainment, midway rides and a beer garden will highlight the annual "Homecoming" of the Granite City Jaycee which starts at 6 p.m. today at 25th Street and Missouri Avenue.

Local organizations sponsoring booths at the festival include the Mexican Honorary Commission, Boy Scouts, Granite Moose Lodge, Republican Club, Sons of Pionan and the Granite City Society for Crippled Children, among others, according to Gerald Gann, homecoming chairman.

On the midway, an assortment of rides will be offered from a new round-up to the traditional ferris wheel and merry-go-round. A beer garden, sponsored by the young men's service club, again will be featured. International food dishes will be available to patrons, Gann said. Two matinee sessions for youngsters with rides costing 25 cents each, are planned Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m.

A 16-piece clown band, headed by Richard Stoltz, will perform from 5 to 9 p.m. Sunday. Gann said the band's appearance has been donated by the Musician's Union.

Other free entertainment will be offered daily starting at 7 p.m. Tonight's musical program will feature John Fornasewski Polka Band; Willard Rainey and the Rainers, Friday; and Bud North and His Country Kats, Saturday.

Proceeds from the "Homecoming" celebration are used by the Jaycees to further projects involving youth in the community, Gann noted.

Regional Report -- Population Growth Will Accelerate

(Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corporation)
According to a report on area housing released by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, the greatest increase in population growth during the next four decades may occur in a corridor extending generally from Alton south along the bluff line to Belleville.

The planners note that the population of the Illinois portion of the metropolitan area increased 14% between 1960 and 1970. They project an even greater increase for the area in the future.

In a discussion about inadequate housing, it was estimated that 26% of the area's housing units are overcrowded or lack some or all plumbing facilities. The report also discusses subdivision activity, multi-family housing and vacant housing units in a three-county area.

An attempt is being made by citizens, the Collinsville
Chamber of Commerce and the City of Collinsville to establish a municipal airport authority.
This action follows the announcement of state plans to close the St. Louis Downtown Airport on Highway 40 when the lease expires June 30.

The proposed authority would acquire and maintain the airfield or develop a new facility at an alternate location. The site of the former Lakeside Airport on Route 111 is considered to be a viable alternative to the airport's present location.

The U. S. Department of the Interior will allocate $25,000 to include a proposed 36-acre East St.
Louis riverfront park in planning studies for the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial. The study is to begin during the 1973 fiscal year.

In Belleville, the City Council agreed to prepare ordinances that will ban parking meters and therefore on-street parking on two major intersecting streets near the heart of the downtown district.

The ordinance, affecting sections of both Main and Illinois Streets, will become effective when Belleville's new off-street parking lots are ready for use at the end of this month.

Belleville Mayor Charles E.
Nichols announced that he will retire from public office at the end of his third four-year term next April. Nichols served 14 years as an alderman before becoming the city's chief executive in 1961.

Utility plans again made news in the area. A four-year old proposal to form a water district in the Fosterberg area was submitted to the Madison County Board. The proposed district would serve Foster and Moro Townships and portions of Godfrey Township.

Issuance of permits for natural gas service for the three top priorities has been resumed by Illinois Power Co.
The utility, which serves much of this region, had earlier halted issuance of new permits due to a tight gas supply situation.

The City of O'Fallon plans to authorize issuance of $3 million in bonds for improvements to its water system. The city is also preparing an agreement to assure water and fire protection to the $25 million St.
Charles Square Shopping Center.

At a meeting in Springfield,
the Illinois Hospital Advisory Council ruled that the proposed Oliver C. Anderson Hospital in

Lee Sets Fastest Time In Cycle Races Here

The fastest time in the opening of cycle races at the Tri-City Speedway was 15:91 set by Robert E. Lee of Fort Worth, Tex., riding an Ossas, a two-cycle engine-driven cycle. Lee's race consisted of three heats which he won easily.

Mike Anderson of Van Nuys, Calif., riding a Kawasaki, took the second heat race, and Neil Keen of St. Louis, last year's track champion, won the third heat, also riding a Kawasaki.

Lee also won the trophy dash over Charlie Chapple of Flint, Mich., who was riding a Yamaha.

The first semi-final was a wheel-to-wheel battle from midway in the race to the finish. Keen got a bad start, but worked his way up to challenge and finally overtook Lee in the last lap of the race.

William Labeo won the second semi-final.

and semi-feature. Only his third race, he never gave up from start to finish.

The final race was a battle which almost duplicated the first, as Lee and Keen battled hard, with Lee gaining the edge.

The weekly races begin with time trials at 7 p.m. and racing at 8 p.m. Each program will include a four-lap trophy dash for the fastest qualifiers, five heat races of six laps each, two semi-feature races with eight laps of racing each, and a 10-lap feature event.

Mercer at St. Mary's in a Blue Ribbon Blue Division Baseball Tilt

Illinois Inter-City baseball fans will have a chance to see Mercer and St. Mary's play against each other at 2 p.m. Sunday on the Third Street diamond in Madison.

The two local teams are both in the league's Blue Division. St. Mary's is holding a down the second-place slot with a 3-3 won-loss record and Mercer is in third place with a 3-4 mark. Glen Carbon is 5-2 and Fairfax is 1-5.

Red division standings are: Troy 7-0, Collinsville and Piasa each 3-3, Vans 3-5 and Highland-Pierson, 2-5.

On the mound for St. Mary's will be John Piechinski, who is 1-0. Standing in to take the mound if needed will be Joe Restoff, an SIU-SU starter who has just joined the Madison team.

Behind the plate for St. Mary's will be Al Bregan, who is hitting .423. The Boosters have two other big guns, as leftfielder Larry Gerzits is hitting .387 and shortstop Jay Greer is at .365 plus leading the team in stolen bases with eight. "We intend to play a real tight defense and do a lot of running," Jim Greer, St. Mary's manager, commented today.

On the mound for Mercer will be Jim Muehlhauser, who is looking for his first win with a 0-2 record.

Wendell Corey, manager of the Mercer line, said, "We are going to play one inning at a time, and we aren't going to be able to take anything for granted. Madison has a good team with some young players who know how to hustle."

In other league action Sunday, Vans of East Alton will play at Glen Carbon; Collinsville Molitor will play Fairfax in Van Preter Park at East Alton; and Piasa is at Highland-Pierson.

Corbin to Be Target Of Sprint Car Drivers

Super sprint car drivers will be expected to expect hard Friday at the Tri-City Speedway.

Tom Corbin of Carrollton, Mo., will be under the gun, as a $25 bounty prize has been offered to the driver who beats him.

Corbin has been victorious in the last three consecutive feature events at the speedway.

A $25 prize also has been offered to anyone beating the track record of 23.30 seconds for a qualifying lap. Bobby Jones of Danville holds the current record.

Rain interrupted auto racing at the speedway last week and the program had to be called off.

Time trials tomorrow will begin at 7:30 p.m., with racing at 8:30 p.m.

Nameoki Joins in Plea for Early Rt. 203 Project

Nameoki township officials will join Granite City school district administrators in a plea to Governor Richard B. Ogilvie for early action to improve and widen Route 203 from the north city limits to Interstate 270 at Mitchell, it was decided at a regular meeting of the Nameoki Town Board Monday night.

Board members read a letter sent by Carl Macios, president of the Granite City School Board to Gov. Ogilvie, urging that the highway improvement be undertaken as soon as possible to avoid interference with school operations when the new Johnson School is placed in use.

Town Clerk Douglas Teeter was instructed to send a similar plea to the governor, asking that he initiate action to place the project on a bidding schedule.

The Route 203 improvement stage for five years. Bids were called on the project early this year, but no offers were received. It has not been scheduled for bidding since.

$5,758 Red Cross Aid to 8 Families in Explosion

A total of $5,758 was expended by the Tri-City American Red Cross Chapter to assist eight families involved in the May 2 explosion and fire on the 800 block of Madison Avenue.

Mrs. Ruby Overbeck, chapter executive, reported to the local Red Cross board of directors Tuesday.

To cover the overall expenses, the sum of $4,500 was reimbursed the local chapter by the National Red Cross, Mrs. Overbeck said.

Financial assistance offered the families included meeting their immediate needs with food, clothing, furniture and incidentals needed to permit them to resume housekeeping.

Purchase of four pairs of eyeglasses, a set of dentures and payment of two hospital bills also were made with Red Cross funds, the directors were advised.

The success of a multi-media class in first aid in April has prompted requests from local business firms to arrange a second course later this summer.

Mrs. Overbeck said. The classes are designed for industrial personnel to permit firms to comply with requirements under the Occupational Safety and Health Act.

A Red Cross training officer noted that by 1973 industrial firms must have between 10 and 20 persons trained in first aid for every 100 employees to meet the standards of the act.

Arrangements for a second multi-media course currently are being negotiated, Mrs. Overbeck said.

During April and May the Tri-City Red Cross Chapter expended a total of $1,040 in service to military families, most of the amount is being handled by servicemen at a later date.

In the same two-month period, the local office staff handled 254 contacts, including 17 emergency leaves; seven extensions; 12 health-welfare reports; 79 other reports; four assistance with government benefits; six financial assistance; 160 counseling; 23 other services; and 17 information only.

CIGARETTS STOLEN
A box containing 592 packages of various brands of cigarettes were stolen in a burglary of the Olympic Service Store, 29th and Adams streets, it was discovered by police at 5:30 a.m. today. The front door glass was smashed.

17 Attend BPW Leadership Conference

Seventeen members of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club were among a total of 237 women who attended a "leadership conference" this week at Eastern Illinois University at Charleston.

The conference, sponsored by the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, included workshops where guidelines were presented on which various 1973 district and state awards will be based.

Mrs. Eleanor Rose Bourke of Canton, Illinois Federation president, addressed the gathering and briefly reviewed plans for the National BPW convention, set July 23-27 at Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Kay Howell of Skokie, Illinois BPW first vice-president and state committee chairman, presented a question and answer panel program based on the 1972-73 BPW theme "Objectives in Action."

Hostesses at a luncheon and program following the workshop were Mrs. Edna Hendricks of Springfield, District 13 chairman and members of the district BPW officer corps.

The delegates were reminded to write or wire congressional leaders citing their support of the Equal Rights Amendment, scheduled to be voted on today.

Representing the local club at the EU conference were Mesdames Pauline Weir, Lil Marzolf, Rosemary Bassen, Maxine Butler, Ruby Parker, Helen Christich, Genevieve Grady, Rebecca Slate, Marie Symczek, Marjorie Hester, Geraldine Brandly, Sylvia Wright, Ruth Walk, Beulah Tripp, Ruth Milhouser, Lorene Sadrakula and Miss Annellen Smith.

Children's Theatre Starts Season

Creative dramas have been added this year to the Children's Theatre program of the Granite City Park District, according to Steve Sues, theatre director.

Afternoon sessions began this week at the Nameoki Recreation Center, Amos and Franklin avenues, and will continue through July 31 when the final production will be performed.

The program offers the participants an opportunity to learn all aspects of theatre work, including acting, singing, creating and dancing. Choreography will be studied and the children will design costumes and paint the scenery, he said.

Introduction of the creative dramas into this season's program will enable the boys and girls to write and produce their own plays and skits, Sues noted.

Miss Mary E. Calvo Is Wed in Evening Ceremony

Beneath a canopy of yellow roses and greenery, Miss Mary Elizabeth Calvo, daughter of State Representative and Mrs. Horace L. Calvo, 3254 Westchester Drive, and Marshall D. Cohen of Highland Park, Ill., were married June 10 in an evening ceremony at Augustine's Restaurant in Belleville.

The couple stood at an altar lavishly decorated with yellow roses and white stephanotis to repeat their wedding vows before Associate Circuit Judge William E. Johnson.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Cohen of Highland Park.

Violin music with guitar accompaniment, played by Mrs. Marty Stiegler, included "A Place For Us."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white gown of French organza over peau de soie. A mandarin neckline featured a deep V-neck collar and an overlay of Brussels lace extended to deep points at the front and back. Tiny covered buttons detailed the front of the dress and the long sleeves were cuffed with wide, slightly gathered Brussels lace.

The imported lace was repeated at the hemline and swept into a cathedral train. A handsome veil of French tulle was attached to a tiny pill box hat, embellished with a wide row of pearls, dividing the veil which fell into the long train.

Hand applied lace roses framed the bride's face and were scattered the length of the veil and created the border design. She carried a bouquet of white miniature roses fashioned in a cascade.

Maid of honor, Miss Linda Calvo, preceded her sister down the white carpeted aisle. She wore a floor length gown of lime green organza over tulle. The neckline featured a double ruffle, plunging low in front, edged in narrow white lace and a white grosgrain ribbon encircled the waist.

She wore an arrangement of yellow roses in her hair and carried a cascade bouquet made up of yellow roses.

Bruce Cohen, the groom's brother, served as best man. Joe Lenski and Larry Calvo, the bride's brother, served as ushers.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Calvo, wore a floor length gown of yellow chiffon with long flowing sleeves. A natural waistline featured a wide insert embroidered with iridescent beads and pearls.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Cohen chose a formal length gown of yellow accordion pleated chiffon. The mandarin neckline and sleeveless Empire bodice were accented with applied roses and trimmed with silver sequins and silver baquette beads.

Both mothers had wrist corsages of yellow chydium orchids.

A reception was held in the restaurant immediately following the ceremony, with approx-

PETER SCHOCKER

Cadet Commended for Academic Excellence

U. S. Air Force Cadet Peter R. Schocker, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Schocker, 2206 Waterman Ave., has completed his sophomore year at the U. S. Air Force Academy, Colo., as the top student of his squadron and again was placed on the dean's list. He maintained a grade point average of 3.80 on a scale of 4.0.

In a letter to Cadet Schocker's parents, Col. Philip J. Erle, professor and head of the department of engineering mechanics, commended the student and said, "I take particular pleasure in calling this excellent achievement to your attention since mechanics is generally regarded by cadets as a very difficult academic discipline, and your son's outstanding accomplishments are even more noteworthy because of the difficulty of a challenge which he so successfully met."

Cadet Schocker is scheduled to graduate from the academy in 1974 with a bachelor of science degree in astronautical engineering and will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force.

Summer flowers in rainbow colors, arranged with palms and ferns, decorated the altar and lighted tapers in hurricane lamps along the aisle illuminated the sanctuary at St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church for the evening wedding June 9 of Miss Lana Louise Williams and Rick E. Noeth.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock was the Rev. Lawrence J. Mattingly. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Penny Toth, 732 N. 85th St., East St. Louis and Ernest Williams, 20 Lakeview Drive. Mr. Noeth is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Noeth, 40 Terrace Lane.

For her wedding the former Miss Williams selected a floor length gown of white silk organza and carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies, blue baby breath, festooned with satin streamers. Imported Venise lace, inserted with blue satin ribbon, detailed the sheer yoke of the Empire bodice, the high mandarin collar and high waistline and accented the long full skirt.

Matching lace motifs trimmed the slightly gathered A-line skirt and edged the detachable chapel train, secured with a blue satin ribbon.

An organza camelot hat covered in Venise lace and blue ribbon secured a long train length veil and a shorter bouffant veil of imported bridal illusion.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Janice Casey and the bridesmaids included Mrs. Diane Lipe, Miss Prima Noeth and Mrs. Sandy Innes, the latter two, sisters of the groom.

They were attired in formal length gowns of batiste over taffeta designed with a high-rise waistline, edged in a fragile Italian lace. A stand up collar and round yoke was created in matching lace and tiny pearl buttons, centered in lace appliques, accented the cuffs of the leg-of-mutton sleeves.

Their very full skirts were bordered with a wide band of lace. Mrs. Casey was in blue and the maids wore frocks in shades of green, pink and orchid. Their colonial bouquets were arrangements of spring flowers in colors to match the gowns.

Dan Noeth attended his brother as best man. Groomsman and ushers were Terry Archley, Larry Koch and Maurice Lambert.

A reception was held at Croation Home in Madison following the ceremony.

Mrs. Toth, mother of the bride, chose a full length dress with a bodice and long sleeves of white nylon and a full skirt in a pink and blue floral print.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Noeth, wore a formal length gown of blue heavy cotton lace designed with a stand-up collar and long sleeves. The natural waistline was accented with a self fabric belt. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

After a wedding trip through the western states, the couple will reside in Granite City. They are both graduates of SIU-SW.

The former Miss Williams is a special education teacher in Dupu, Ill., and her husband is employed as assistant manager at Schermer's Market in Madison.

Raymond Mobleys Feted at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mobley, 1611 Lindell Blvd., observed their 25th wedding anniversary at a buffet dinner party given during the weekend in their home by their children.

Hosts for the evening affair were Mrs. Mary Fran Rucker and Michael Mobley. They were assisted by Mrs. Reba Wallace.

Decorations were in silver and white, with a floral centerpiece on the buffet serving table.

Refreshments were served to about 43 guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson and son, Dave, Mrs. Emma Wiemann, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schurman, all of Collinsville and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rucker and daughter, Jamie, of Dow, Illinois.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD HANCOCK, who exchanged wedding vows at St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church. She is the former Miss Patricia Ann Whaley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Whaley, Rural Route One, Granite City.

Hancock-Whaley Nuptials At St. Margaret Mary

Miss Patricia Ann Whaley became the bride of Edward James Hancock in a late afternoon ceremony June 10 at St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Church before an altar banked with arrangements of white and yellow summer flowers.

The Rev. Kevin Sullivan of Springfield, Ill., and the Rev. Robert Becker performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Margaret Crawshaw, organist, accompanied Mrs. Margaret MacZura, who sang "We've Only Just Begun," "Whither Thou Goest," "On This Day," and "One Hand, One Heart."

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Whaley of Rural Route One, Holiday Mobile Homes, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hancock, 1811 Venice Ave.

Wearing an exquisite bridal gown of white silk organza over peau de soie and Austrian Venise lace, the bride was escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father.

The gown was designed with a fitted bodice featuring a square neckline. The Austrian lace extended into the tightly fitted sleeve top above billowy sheer long sleeves.

Delicate lace motifs accented the sleeves, full A-line skirt and formed a border at the hemline.

A lace headpiece secured the bouyant veil of imported bridal tulle and her bridal bouquet was an offside cascade of white daisies, yellow Sweetheart roses and baby breath.

Miss Donna York, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and chose a pastel yellow gown in Empire style. White daisy motifs accented the high rise waist and trimmed the hemline of the A-line skirts and were repeated on the short babydoll puffed sleeves.

Miss Sandy Hickman, Mrs. Mary Kay Gavin, Mrs. Darla Whaley, a sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Claudine Reinhardt, the groom's sister, were bridesmaids.

They wore lemon yellow dresses identical in design to the honor attendant's frock. All wore matching yellow picture hats and held nosegays of white daisies, cushion poms and baby breath.

Danny Ostrega was the groom's best man. Ted Keck, Ron Shepard, Denny Mang, Richard Reinhardt, a brother-in-law of the groom, James Whaley, brother of the bride and Nick Nessel, the bride's cousin, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Both mothers selected floor length gowns. Mrs. Whaley wore an ice green silk shantung in a princess line style with a rolled neckline and short cap sleeves. Two rows of beading in silver and deep green accented the front of the gown from the neckline to the hem. Starburst medallions were appliqued on the skirt and bodice for added detail.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Hancock, was attired in an apricot silk shantung fashioned with a high ring collar and tiny pleated full bishop sleeves of sheer chiffon. A full sleeveless coat completed her ensemble.

They wore corsages in colors to complement their dress.

A rehearsal dinner for members of the wedding party was held at Charlie's Restaurant, hosted by the groom's parents.

Wedding guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception given at the V.F.W. Hall.

After a wedding trip through the southern states they will return to reside at Parkview Apartments.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School. The former Miss Whaley is a licensed beautician and manages Aloha-Tu Beauty Salon. Her husband is employed as a barber at Suburban Barber Shop.

County Seeks to Tie Up Personal Property Tax

The Madison County Circuit Court is being asked to place millions of dollars in protested personal property taxes in escrow pending a U. S. Supreme Court ruling on a state referendum to abolish the tax.

Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney, was asked by the Madison County Board to initiate the action during its meeting Monday.

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has urged all Illinois residents to pay personal property taxes under protest so that they may receive refunds if the U. S. Supreme Court rules in favor of the results of the 1970 referendum. Filing of a protest form will be necessary to obtain any refund unless the escrow plan is approved.

Smith estimated that $12,216,922 is expected in personal property taxes, the same as last year. Other Illinois counties are taking the same steps following the governor's request.

The action could lead to financial hardships to school districts and other taxing bodies. Smith said he was investigating possibilities of allowing county school districts to borrow money from the escrow fund through anticipation warrants.

'Refund' Try Fails, St. Louisan Arrested

John W. Hughes, 44, of St. Louis, was charged with theft of two sheets at the W. T. Grant Store at 6:06 p.m. Tuesday.

Store officials told police that the man entered the store with an empty sack, placed two sheets into it and then told the cashier that he wanted to return the sheets which he had purchased earlier.

Following the graduation Miss Karpowicz and Miss Marsha Therford of Alton, also an SIU graduate, left by jet for a two-week vacation in Los Angeles, Las Vegas and Mexico.

MRS. KISMER EARNS MASTER'S DEGREE

Mrs. Martha Kismer, 1804 Second St., Madison, received her master's degree in Child Guidance and Counseling during the commencement exercises at SIU-SW.

Mrs. Kismer has been a first grade teacher at the Granite City School for the past five years.

Janetta Becker Becomes Mrs. David Whitecotton

Miss Janetta R. Becker and Electrician Third Class David A. Whitecotton, U. S. Coast Guard, were united in marriage at 7:30 p.m., June 9, at Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church.

A double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Daniel Flynn before an altar decorated with bouquets of orchid and lavender gladioli and pink mums. Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Margaret Crawshaw.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Becker, 2621 Iowa St., and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Whitecotton, reside at 2529 Center St.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Becker selected a white silk organza bridal gown. Long sleeves were set in the fitted bodice of the A-line silhouette fashion. Dimensional styling nylon designed the square yoke effect and formed the deep wrist bands and a wide border at the hemline.

Venise lace with inserted satin ribbon and pink flowers detailed the high collar and center front of the dress.

A Venise lace headpiece secured the long mantilla style veil and her bridal bouquet was a nosegay of white daisies, pom poms and pink Sweetheart roses, festooned with pink streamers.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Jean Gann, a sister of the bride, appeared in a lilac gown and the bridesmaids, Miss Sharon Glasparovic and Mrs. Pat Sparks, the groom's sister, wore pink dresses.

Their dacton polyester organza gowns were fashioned with long sheer sleeves, a square neckline and long billowy skirts. White lace was used for a vest bodice effect that was laced in a criss-cross fashion with satin ties.

Matching bows of organza held in place nose tip veils in shades of lavender to complement their gowns. Nosegays of lavender and pink carnations were carried by the brides.

Katherine Galbreath, a cousin of the bride, flower girl, wore a frock of white lace with lavender stripes over lavender tulle. She carried a basket of lavender petals. Ringbearer was Donald L. Becker, a cousin of the bride.

Michael Sparks, the groom's brother-in-law, was best man, with Mike Hauptman and Jerry Owens as groomsmen. Ushers included Terry Gann and Mike Kirksey.

A reception was held at Tri-Mor 300 Room following the service. A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the groom at Charlie's Restaurant.

Both mothers wore formal length gowns. Mrs. Becker, the bride's mother, chose a dress of blue saki material, designed with short sleeves and accented with a bow and delicate lace at the high rise waist and on the hem of the train. She wore midnight blue accessories.

Mrs. Whitecotton, mother of the groom, wore a bone colored dress with Venise lace bodice, long sleeves and narrow pleated skirt, with accessories in matching shades. Their corsages were cymbidium orchids.

Graduates of Granite City High School, the couple will live in Wilmington, N. C., where the groom is stationed in the Coast Guard. The former Miss Becker also is a graduate of Granite City School of Beauty Culture.

Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. David Daniel of Norfolk, Va., Mr. and Mrs. David Miller and son of Plainfield, Ind., Mrs. Mildred Miller of Arbor Vitae, Wis., Mrs. Dolly Milford, Marion, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Cox, Milford, Ill., Mrs. Agnes Penland, Liberty, Ill., and Miss Brenda Cox, Lytle, Ill.

State's Two 'Super U. S. Senators' Expand Services with Speech Fees and Other Funds

Are Illinoisans getting "super service" from their two U. S. senators?

Opinions may vary, but both deserve credit or blame — again depending on one's viewpoint — for expanding their staffs and activities with the aid of extra funds earned from speeches and articles.

Extensive earnings by members of the "world's most exclusive club," the 100-member Senate, sometimes are criticized, especially when the fees appear to go far beyond the amount of time and travel devoted to the guest appearance or report. However, the specific amounts accepted by the Illinoisans do not appear to be outrageously high. And both point out that the money is being used for "a good cause."

By making speeches, Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson II almost breaks even on the out-of-pocket expenses associated with his service as a senator. Sen. Charles H. Percy would have to spend considerably more time on the honorarium circuit to come close.

Stevenson lists $12,500 in honoraria received in 1971 for nine talks and one article and Percy reports $4,800 for six speeches. The Democrat says such fees go toward office expenses in excess of his Senate allowance; these costs totaled $13,773 in 1971.

Percy provides no cost figure but points out that not only his $4,800 speaking income but his entire Senate salary goes for office expenses. The Republican legislator also finds it necessary to supplement this with his personal resources.

The senior Illinois senator, in fact, has one of the biggest staffs in the Senate side of Capitol Hill. It is not required by law that he have so many helpers, but Percy deems it necessary in order to be the kind of senator that he thinks he should be.

Percy spoke to the Public Affairs Council, District of Columbia, for $500; Super Market Institute, $1,500; World Affairs Council of Wilmington, Del., $1,000; Active Ballot Club, $1,000; Oak Park Community Lectures, $500; and AIA-CEC Public Affairs Conference, $300. Honoraria of less than $300 are not required to be reported under Senate rules.

Stevenson addressed California Newspaper Publishers, $1,000; AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, $500; Anti-Defamation League, $500; Associated Jewish Charities, $1,500; Hotel Rector, $1,000; Bar Tenderers International Union, $1,000; National Confectioners Association, $1,000; Associated Milk Producers, $1,500; York County, Pa., Democrats, $1,000; and National Restaurant Association, $1,500. He was paid $3,000 by Field Enterprises for a 7,000-word article, "A Freshman in the Senate" in the 1972 World Book yearbook.

His out-of-pocket expenses last year were $1,306 in telephone bills above the allowance, $5,605 staff travel, stationery and lunches for constituents in the Senate dining room, $3,105 for his own travel and $3,757 to Illinois charities.

Sen. Percy and his wife have placed their financial affairs in a "blind trust" with a trustee. Sen. Stevenson has not seen a need to go this far but is one of the few senators who places his quarterly asset-liability statements in the Congressional Record.

Both seem to be meticulous in assuring that their public service benefits the public rather than themselves (although neither has made a Sherman-like statement ruling out the possibility of higher office).

Public Television Channel Here Capturing The Chief Awards for Quality of Programs

The high quality of educational television available here is shown clearly by the fact that this metropolitan area's public television station, Channel 9, is presenting television network programming of a caliber which walked away with the major dramatic awards in the 24th annual Emmy awards judging.

Glenda Jackson won two best actress awards for her performance in the Public Broadcasting Service's "Elizabeth R" series, aired locally this winter on KETC-TV. Miss Jackson won both dramatic acting awards, for a single performance and for a series, for her portrayal of Queen Elizabeth I in one of the "Mastepiece Theatre" series at 8 p.m. Sundays.

"Elizabeth R" was further cited as the outstanding dramatic series of the 1971-72 season, and also was awarded an Emmy as the best new series of the year.

PBS received an Emmy in a special classification for outstanding program and individual achievement for "The Pentagon Papers," a public affairs special broadcast last June. In addition, an award for writing achievement was presented for "The Trial of Mary Lincoln," an original opera starring mezzo-soprano Elaine Bonazzi in the lead singing role, aired here in February and repeated in April.

Channel 9's evening programming, such as the award-winning efforts recognized by this year's Emmy awards, is made possible by the financial support of its viewers. "It is gratifying to see the excellence of public television programming recognized in this manner, but it is doubly gratifying when viewers respond by supporting the station that brings them such programming," Robert C. Glazier, executive director of KETC-TV, comments. "Without the help of Channel 9 members, we simply would not be able to carry such programming."

Annual memberships, either $25 (family) or $15 (personal), are tax-deductible and include membership benefits, including a subscription to the station's monthly program guide. For further information, or to send in a membership contribution, Quad-Cityans may write Channel 9 at 6996 Millbrook, St. Louis, Mo. 63130.

Half Not Utilizing Freedom to Vote; Many Registrars Are Available to Quad-Cityans

U. S. Senator Charles H. Percy in the 1972 SIU-SW commencement address questioned why only half of Illinoisans aged 18, 19 and 20 bothered to vote in the March primary election even though numerically they could have had a profound effect on the outcome.

It is a challenging thought not only for young people but for older voters.

No age group came close to setting any turnout records, despite the fact — as brought out by Senator Percy — that "the most precious gift we have is the right to be a free society — freedom to participate, to shape, to influence and to count to the fullest."

With this in mind, we call to the attention of all who will be 18 or older on or before Nov. 2, 1972 that the Quad-City area voter registration centers currently in operation.

The registration deadline is Oct. 10, and special dates in the Quad-City area include June 16, 17, 24 and 30 and July 1. Ten permanent registrars also will be active each week during the summer.

Client rosters really began to bulge when Copley News Service, Inc. moved from Miami to Boston to serve those on the Eastern seaboard.

Other wire clients were added throughout the Midwest and on the Pacific Coast.

A six-day service, eight hours a day, was provided. The wire was busy with news of the eight-man Washington, D. C., bureau.

The wire featured world-wide coverage, especially from Latin America.

Clients numbered about 114 throughout America in 1968.

No concentrated effort was made to make Copley News Service material available to newspapers of all sized circulations and budgets, though, until during the summer of 1968.

At that time an ex-three star Marine Corps general, Lt. Gen. V. H. Krulak, was named president of Copley News Service by James Copley.

The general soon named John Pinkerman as his editor, utilizing Pinkerman's newspaper experience and many years in New England and with one of the Copley newspapers in San Diego, the United Press.

Krulak appointed John C. Moon, longtime Copley editor in the Los Angeles area, as business and sales manager.

Charles Ohl, formerly with United Press International, was moved into the executive news editor's chair.

With this news and sales team, CNI launched a two-pronged drive:

1. To beef up the news, features and columns being offered by the service.

2. To increase the clients.

CNS began to move rapidly in both areas.

By the end of the summer, the daily news budget increased, so did the clients.

Long Alaska Pipeline Delay Adds to Energy Crisis

Copley News Service

Interior Secretary Rogers Morton has announced his intent to grant right-of-way permits for the controversial trans-Alaska oil pipeline, an action which could ease the fears of those concerned with a developing energy crisis in the United States.

But legal challenges by environmentalists to the 780-mile project may still delay start of construction for more than a year.

And the oil deficit that now requires imports of 1.7 million barrels daily could reach 15 million barrels by 1980.

The potential for increased reliance on insecure foreign sources has been acknowledged by President Nixon, who ordered a 15% increase in import quotas for the remainder of 1972.

Readbooks created under National Environmental Policy Act already have stalled development of untapped oil reserves in Alaska's North Slope for two years.

Morton has recognized some of the major environmental problems but insists that the uncertainties are more than offset by the certain need for prompt delivery of Alaska oil to West Coast ports.

He concedes the possibility of some damage to the delicate Alaska tundra during pipeline construction, some interference with animal and plant life, and the threat of accidents in earthquake zones.

Now Canada has won court permission to oppose the pipeline through legal channels, primarily on the basis of the danger of spills at sea from tankers transporting oil from the pipeline terminal at Valdez to ports in the Seattle area.

Canadians would like to see the pipeline move south this year and next year, suggesting that the environmental threat from two lines is no greater than from one.

American environmental groups have latched on to the Canadian proposal for dubious reasons.

They contend that it would move the pipeline south and eliminate the need for sea transport of oil by terminating in the Midwest.

But the greater length also increases the risk of damage to nature.

And increased imports of oil during the longer construction period would only boost the spill potential from foreign tankers.

Neither are engineering studies and environmental surveys on the Canadian route complete, leaving the only alternative to the Alaska pipeline clouded in vagueness.

The Interior Department has proposed new laws to limit the limitations of federal laws to protect the environment and in its decision has weighed the urgency of energy demands against the commendable objectives of nature's defenders.

Further delay hastens the dread day when the nation will be unable to heat and light its homes and run its factories.

The environmentalists do a service when they insist that every precaution be taken to prevent damage to a precious wilderness.

However, is it a service to demand guarantees that oil can be taken out of the ground near the Arctic Circle and delivered to distant markets without affecting nature?

In the years the pipeline project has been stalled, its cost estimate has risen from $90 million to at least $3 billion.

Pipe and construction equipment has been stockpiled in Alaska at a storage cost of $5 million a month.

Such unnecessary costs, to be reflected in the price the public pays for oil and gas, can put more truth than poetry in the description of oil as "black gold."

To the Editor:

In behalf of Chapter HT of the PEO Sisterhood, I want to express our appreciation for the fine publicity you have given us in the Press-Record this year.

1972 SHRINE CIRCUIT
ATTRACTED 12,000

To the Editor:

In writing you as president of the Tri-City Shrine Club to tell you how much we appreciate the efforts of the Press-Record in publicizing our Shrine circuit just finished in Granite City.

You will be interested to know that approximately 12,000 people attended the circuit this year, including a multitude of children who were personally escorted by the Shriners themselves.

Other groups sponsored children and adults, including the Madison County Sheriff's Department, whose deputy association brought 200 kiddies to the circuit and even provided soda, popcorn, etc., for the whole group.

We did have a real good show this year and next year we expect an even better one.

The cooperation we experienced this year made us feel that only great to be Shriners, but those of us who live here in the Quad-City area feel great to be a part of the Quad-Cityans.

Everyone helped — city officials, businessmen, police and others too numerous to name; they all "did their thing" and that's what made our circuit a success in this area.

Again, as Shriners, we extend a "big hand" to the Press-Record for your usual great job.

EXPLAINS FLAG SALUTE

To the Editor:

Regarding the recent Memorial Day services, there is enlightenment needed as to what is proper, in regard to the salute to flag, or in its passing — the response the public should make to give proper tribute to the stars and stripes.

Below are excerpts taken from the Amvets flag manual:

Whenever the American flag is passing in a parade or in a review, or when hoisting or lowering the flag all persons present should face the flag, stand at attention with arms straight out in front of them.

Those present in uniform of posts, veterans' organizations, etc., should render the military salute. When not in uniform, men should remove the head-dress, with the right hand holding it at the left shoulder, the hand being over the heart.

Men without hats should salute in the same manner, hand over heart. Women should salute by placing the right hand over the heart.

The salute to the flag in a moving column should be ordered at the moment the flag passes.

When the national anthem is played, all present should stand and face toward the music.

Those in uniform should salute with the right hand, retaining the position till the last note.

All others should stand at attention, men removing their hats. But when the flag is displayed, all present should face the flag and render the salute.

The above is the proper procedure for patriotic programs or whenever the American flag is publicly displayed in parades, etc. I am positive we all wish to properly salute the stars and stripes in its proper manner.

1822 — The Charleston Mercury is established as a South Carolina newspaper.

Acquired in 1832 by Robert Barnwell Rhett, attorney, businessman, and former member of state legislature and state attorney general.

Repulsed by the Congress in 1837-49 and succeeded John C. Calhoun in the Senate in 1852, but resigned to edit the Mercury.

An advocate of states rights, he made the paper the chief voice for secessionism, in which South Carolina led the way in December 1860, with 16 seceding states to form the Confederacy. The first shot of the Civil War was fired at Charleston's Fort Sumter in April 1861.

Ecuador gains its independence in battle with Spanish forces on slopes of volcano Pichincha, overlooking Quito.

Simon Bolivar, commander of revolutionary forces based in Colombia, enters Quito a month later and proclaims territory part of Republic of Colombia, also including Venezuela.

General amnesty Act, under 14th amendment, restores full political privileges to white men in southern states who had been disenfranchised because of the Civil War.

There remained 500 ex-convicts, but this number later was reduced by individual acts.

Excavation began for the Saint Gotthard railway tunnel in the Swiss Alps, to provide a direct connection between the rail systems of Northern Italy, Switzerland and Germany.

Completed in 1882 and opened for use in 1882, it was more than nine miles in length, third longest in the world, and cost nearly $58 million.

Fingerprint Criminology Here

JUNE 15, 1922

Local police are graduating to the fingerprint branch of criminology. A man being held on a highway robbery charge was fingerprinted and, in a few minutes, it was learned that he was a St. Louis police character. It was not necessary to furnish any name; the classification of the print was given to St. Louis police, who immediately furnished the real name of the man, together with his past record.

Rapid Growth by Copley Agency

Unswerving in its emphasis on detailed, complete Quad-City area news coverage, the Press-Record two years ago expanded its news space to permit inclusion of a larger number of local photographs.

Then, a year ago, the news space in the Press-Record was further increased in size to allow for inclusion of more state and governmental news, much of it from the Press-Record's Springfield bureau, the Copley News Service. At the same time, some national Copley coverage of local impact also was added.

On the occasion of our first anniversary of utilizing the Copley News Service, we tell a few facts about it, including the news that this month it has signed on its 1,000th client.

CNS accurately describes itself as "the fastest-growing and broad-based news gathering agency of its kind."

Client No. 1,000 was signed effective June 1. It was the San Antonio, Tex., Express and News, one of the Hart-Hanks newspapers.

The service set up bureau and correspondents around the globe to tell the "why" of day-to-day news developments.

Soon, however, "outside" newspapers across the nation asked to share the service. Wire was sent from Miami to Boston to serve those on the Eastern seaboard.

Other wire clients were added throughout the Midwest and on the Pacific Coast.

A six-day service, eight hours a day, was provided. The wire was busy with news of the eight-man Washington, D. C., bureau.

The wire featured world-wide coverage, especially from Latin America.

Illinois Power Seeks Rehearing

Illinois Power Company has filed application for rehearing and reconsideration of the Illinois Commerce Commission's May 12 order denying an electric rate increase.

The company, with headquarters in Decatur, serves a 15,000-square-mile area of Illinois with natural gas and electricity, including the Quad-Cities.

On June 18, 1971, Illinois Power filed with the ICC a request for an electric rate increase of about 15% to provide $21,500,000 in added annual electric revenues. After 11 months, the commission denied the request.

America Must Increase Productivity--Howlett

A three-way partnership of government, industrial management and labor can hold down inflation and taxes by increasing productivity, Michael J. Howlett, state Auditor of Public Accounts, said Tuesday at a luncheon of the Belleville Rotary Club in Augustine's restaurant.

"For most of our lives, the productivity of American industry has been the wonder of the world," said Howlett. "But the world has been going around that we are slipping."

"In West Germany, output per manhour of labor has been rising 5.3% a year. In Japan, it has been rising 14.2%."

"In the first quarter of 1972, productivity in the American economy grew at an annual rate of only 2.1%, declining from 3.2% in the previous quarter and 4% in the third quarter of 1971."

More Work Per Hour

"The American worker still turns out more work in an hour than workers elsewhere, but other countries are catching up. The fight against inflation in the United States depends on increasing productivity of the worker."

"What applies to industry also applies to government. The effort to hold down taxes depends on increasing productivity of the government worker."

"In the Auditor's office, we have more than doubled our daily check writing capacity during the last 11 1/2 years by application of business principles. It costs the taxpayers less money to write a check in our office today than it did in 1961."

Cost Rising
"The cost of government keeps rising every year as we employ more and more workers to provide government services."

"Government employment in the United States has risen each year since 1953. State and local governments have accounted for most of the rise."

"The budget proposed for Illinois state government for the coming fiscal year is nearly $7.5 billion, a 12% increase from this year."

"We cannot continue to take a bigger piece of the economy year after year to pay for government."

"If the present trend persists, government will cost $15,000 a year for every man, woman and child in the United States by the turn of the century."

"It is futile to blame labor for rising wages, or management for raising prices, or legislators for raising taxes. It will take a partnership effort of all three to find new ways to provide goods and services with less effort."

Jehovah's Witnesses To Attend Meeting

The Granite City congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses has been informed by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York of arrangements for district conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses for 1972 in the United States.

The announcement said that the Illinois State Fairgrounds in Cicero, Ill., at one of the sites for a convention July 6-9.

The convention manager, Edward H. Lanzillo, of Chicago, said that 12,000 are expected to attend at the fairgrounds.

Douglas A. Bartow, Murphysboro, news director for the 21 downstate congregations in Illinois Circuit #7 of Jehovah's Witnesses, said the four-day convention will stress the importance of spirituality in an age of materialism.

The Granite City congregation of the Witnesses has been transferred from Illinois Circuit #6 to Circuit 7.

Francis H. Clanton, presiding minister of the Granite City congregation, said that 1,200 or more delegates, including some 150 from Granite City, will attend at the fairgrounds from this area.

"Daily news reports show the world is under great stress with widespread revolution, anarchy, war, pollution, crime, disease and death," Bartow said.

"Jehovah's Witnesses feel that there is a definite drift away from the Bible," Bartow continued. "This convention will place the Bible in its proper place. It is not simply an accurate historical record and a good collection of prose and poetry. It is a book detailing God's standards by which men should live, including worship, morals, and our dealings with others."

Bartow said the theme of the convention will be "Divine Rule-ship," and the program's lectures, symposiums and dramas will center on the need for Divine intervention for man to have peace and life.

Reduced State Funds Cut Campus Cleanup

Less frequent cleaning of funding cuts during fiscal years 1971 and 1972.

"The impact of these cuts already is being felt throughout the University," Hudgens said. "Classrooms and landscape maintenance are the two most noticeable areas of neglect, but there are many more subtle parts of the operation which suffer from a less than adequate level of funding."

Hudgens said plant operations for the fiscal year beginning July 1 will have a budget $434,000 below the level of support recommended by the Illinois Board of Higher Education's formula for physical plants. It is to be reduced to the status The cutback comes after state of seasonal employees.

Frozen Property Taxes Could Help Control Spiraling Costs--Ogilvie

REPORTS AUTO STOLEN

Jack Lindley, 17 Shirwin Drive, reported the theft of a black over gold 1963 hardtop auto at 7 p.m. Monday. The vehicle was stolen from a parking area at 23rd and Charles streets.

COLLIDE AT INTERSECTION

Vehicles operated by Lewis J. Saloveic of Spring Lake, Mich., and Alan J. Pieper, 2661 Benton St., collided at 10:15 a.m. Monday at 26th and State streets.

By GOVERNOR RICHARD B. OGILVIE

Freeze local taxes at their 1972 levels through 1974. That's the objective of a bill now moving in the Illinois General Assembly with strong bipartisan support.

I have enthusiastically given my support to the bill. The major provision of the bill would bar local governments from collecting more taxes in total than they will this year.

Thus, changes in individual assessments might produce changes up or down for individual homeowners or businessmen—but the total would be frozen at the 1972 level.

There are a few exceptions, which I will explain later. Since 1969, we have attempted to reform the tax structure of Illinois, and a major objective has been to ease the load of taxes on property and personal property—all of which support units of local government.

To this end, we insisted that the state income tax legislation give direct, no-strings aid to our local units of government.

The income tax, painful though it is, is intrinsically fairer than forms of the property tax because you pay less in a bad year while the property tax just seems to go up and up.

Meanwhile, we're moving to get the United States Supreme Court to knock out the personal property tax on individuals. FINALLY!

Massive state aid has gone to our localities—$536 million in revenue-sharing and other programs, and $3.8 billion for local schools.

It should have held down local property tax increases, and it did so in many communities. Unfortunately, the reverse is true in far too many cases.

In communicating with our legislators, I said flatly that the rising property taxes of many communities are "intolerable."

I also suggested that they work closely with Attorney General William Scott to ensure the constitutionality and enforceability of the legislation.

While the legislation is unique, I believe forceful measures are vital to end the spiraling increases in taxes.

Major exceptions of the general rule of the bill should be noted, and there will be further opportunities for necessary exceptions. The present exceptions are:

1. Where a minimum tax rate is prescribed to qualify a local government unit—such as schools—for federal or state aid, the total levy can be increased to accommodate this requirement.

2. Units of government or school districts created this year or later may levy taxes above the freeze level.

3. Where taxpayers choose to approve a tax increase in a public vote, the total may be increased.

The latter provision is a key one, since it preserves the vital principle of home rule, and will not block the desire of local voters to improve schools or other services.

4. For units which do not levy any tax in 1972, the freeze level will be the last tax they had.

Thus, towns which eliminated a town tax, as some have with state revenue-sharing, can meet future needs on a historic basis.

Substantial other aid to hardpressed taxpayers is at or near passage stage. The measures include:

—Re-adoption of the exclusion of one household of furniture and one automobile from personal property taxation.

—Substantial relief to homeowners and renters 65 or older when property taxes exceed 7% of their income. The maximum benefit—a refund—would be $300.

—Exemption of farm personal property from personal property taxation, and replacement of the lost revenues by local taxing districts.

Music World -- Lindy Stevens Called Another Carole King

By JUDY HUGG
Copley News Service

It's highly probable that we have another Carole King coming on the music scene in the person of singer-song-writer Lindy Stevens.

Miss Stevens, who hails from Milwaukee, Wis., comes from a musical background, her father having played jazz guitar for 20 years.

The Decca recording artist has been classed in the Laura Nyro, Joni Mitchell and Miss King traditional style of singing and composing.

"Pure Devotion" on the Decca label is Lindy's debut LP and it gives one a good all-around chance to hear her at her best.

In an interview, Lindy said about her style: "I do both rock 'n' roll and soft stuff. My back-up musicians in live sets consist of only a guitar, bass and drums with myself on the piano."

However, on the album producers Matthew Moore and Bobby Torres have added the conga, trombone, flute and clarinet for depth and a more solid background.

But when the little chirp steps on to the stage, depth is the least of her concern. With her long brown hair flowing to the beat of the drums, Lindy belts out a powerful song.

"Yes, I feel my music," she explained. "I'm a great one for getting involved in it. And it's the same way with my writing. I wrote all the lyrics on my first album and hope to do the same for my second one, which is now in the making."

As a musician and a writer, which comes first, the words or the music?

"Well, the music usually comes first and it tends to set the mood for the words," she said.

Where do you get your inspirations for songs such as "Penny Gold," "Make Ends Meet," "Ask The Lord" and "Devotion"?

"Basically my music is about simple, everyday things," she answered.

"Usually I try to relate incidents that have happened to my friends because they have been big influences on my life. I write for myself first, usually to get to the bottom of myself, and then if people find something to care about in my music, well, naturally, it's very fulfilling."

Speaking of influences, Lindy says that Miss Mitchell, Sills and Croft and Miss Nyro have done the most in the way of influencing her, although she says that she hasn't patterned herself after any one person.

As for her favorite girl singer, she says:

"Well, that's hard to say. There are plenty of them around and I really have lots of respect for lots of people. And you know, it's such a rough business for girls."

Why?

"Well, probably just because they are girls," she said laughing. "It's a difficult thing for a girl to make the decision as to whether to dedicate her life to music or to wifehood and motherhood."

"It's a big involvement—it's not like being a secretary or something. I mean you just have to devote so much time to it."

Lindy may devote a lot of time to her work, but her voice seems to have a natural unstrained quality to it that enables her to hit the high notes as well as the low with equal ease.

Her range is wide enough to take her from a Broadway musical to a country western hootenay and not be out of place.

In keeping pace with the world around her, Miss Stevens recently wrote her first real protest song.

"It deals with Vietnam," she said. "I think the situation is getting out of hand, so I felt the need to relate my feelings on the subject. It will appear on my new album."

Although she is excited about her upcoming album, one must not overlook "Pure Devotion." It's a delightful LP—a little weak in spots, but it should give her the public's attention that she so richly deserves.

Running through the cuts on the album, it's easy to see that she is a sensitive, highly compassionate young lady. She expresses her innermost thoughts through the lyrics of her topical music.

For example, "Ask The Lord" and "Help Me, Jesus" are earthy and basically uncomplicated desires that she sets to music.

"Penny Gold" has an obvious transcendental quality which takes one back to the days of Emerson and Thoreau, an era of finding peace in nature.

"Walking By His Open Door" tells of the frustrations she experienced while trying to know and find herself.

As music marches on, so do the performers, but Lindy Stevens will leave her mark along the way. Once she gets things in high gear, there won't be any stopping her.

Her songs, like many of those by Carole King, will find their way to the top by more than just one performer.

So, try "Pure Devotion"—it's got what it takes to be a real smash sleeper.

Miss Deborah S. Trotts, Ernest W. Motl Are Wed

St. Mary Roman Catholic Church in Madison was the scene of the wedding June 10 of Miss Deborah S. Trotts, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony B. Trotts, 1022 Greenwood St., Madison, and Ernest W. Motl, a son of Mrs. Eileen Motl, 2029 Harris Ave., Madison, and the late Alan E. Motl.

The Rev. Sylvester Micko officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony before an altar decorated with fresh spring flowers.

For her wedding, the bride chose an elegant gown fashioned of tiers of ivory silk organza over taffeta, featuring a deep yoke of Venice lace extending into a drop shoulder. The bishop sleeves of organza ended at the wrists with a wide band of lace and a delicate stand up collar was in matching lace.

A detachable chapel train was secured to the gently flowing skirt with a self fabric bow. She wore a camelot hat of Venice lace, holding in place a cathedral length veil, and she carried a bridal bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Diane Trotts, a sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Mrs. Christine Green, the bride's cousin, Miss Chris Harper and Mrs. Pattie Clinton, served as bridesmaids.

They were formally attired in apricot crepe over taffeta gowns made with a high rise waistline. Ivory Venice lace and tiny motifs formed three decorative rows on the bodice, designed with sheer puffed sleeves. Each attendant wore a band of apricot flowers in her hair.

The groom chose his brother, Daniel Trotts, as best man. Howard Green, Mike Rickert, Don Sawicki, Marvin Owca and Edward Motl, another brother, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Edward Goelan III, a cousin of the bride, was ringbearer and escorted Susie Mesaki, the little flower girl. She wore a frock identical to the bridesmaids' dresses and carried a basket of rose petals.

A reception was held at Polish Hall in Madison, immediately following the ceremony.

Mrs. Trotts, mother of the bride, selected a pink dress with white accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Motl, chose an aqua dress with matching accessories.

After a wedding trip to the Missouri Ozarks, the couple will reside in Madison.

Both are graduates of Madison High School. The former Miss Trotts is employed as a secretary at Industrial Soap Co. in St. Louis. Her husband works at Granite City Steel Co.

Spring flowers were used to decorate the table for the coffee-brunch at 10:30 a.m., served by the hostesses, Mrs. Joyce Pittenger, Mrs. Ellen Hoffman and Miss Hinson.

More than 45 guests attended the party, including members of Miss Morgan's family, co-workers and other friends.

Miss Pearl Morgan, a mathematics teacher at Coolidge Junior High School who retired at the close of the school term, was honored at a retirement party this week in the home of Miss Dorothy Hinson, 1530 Third St., Madison.

The honoree, who has been a teacher in the Granite City school system for 44 years, was presented with a gift from the Coolidge faculty members by Calvin Bartels, assistant principal.

50,000 Drivers Fail

Last year alone, over 50,000 Illinois licensed drivers failed the state written examination. This year the number of drivers that will fail could jump to a hundred thousand or more. Experts say — "One reason is, that rules and regulations change, and even some good safe drivers just don't keep up with the new laws." If your license expires this year, you may be among the hundreds of thousands that will be re-examined in 1972. So if you're nervous about taking the state written exam, here's good news. You can now purchase your own "self-scoring" test papers, complete with questions, answers and road signs you should know for that important examination day. This method has helped thousands pass the state exam. Introductory price just $8 plus 75 cents handling. (Check or money order only.) Mail to: AA-AA School of Safe Driving, 6204 N. Monday Deadline for Fireworks Permit

Monday will be the last day for any group of three or more persons, residing in an unincorporated area of the county, to apply for a fireworks permit for a Fourth of July display from the county clerk, Eulalia Hotz, at Edwardsville. The State Law required that application for a permit must be made at least 15 days prior to the display.

The Illinois Laws require the display to be handled by a competent individual, designated by the chairman of the County Board.

Applicants are required to list three responsible persons who would be in charge of the fireworks. Nelson Hagnauer, County Board chairman, designates one of the three to supervise the fireworks display, Miss Hotz said.

The statute provides that any person, firm, co-partnership, or corporation violating the act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction may be punished by a fine up to $100 or by imprisonment in the county jail up to 90 days, or both.

Does an automatic stick shift make it more attractive?

The optional automatic stick shift in the Super Beetle doesn't have a clutch pedal.
Just a stick you don't shift much.
Drive 1 drives you all over town.
Drive 2 drives you up and down the highway.
Stop by and shift for yourself.

Press-Record YOUTH FOCUS

Father, Son Graduate, Earn Business Degrees

When Orville N. Mueth of Caseyville went to commencement Saturday at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern to see his son Terry graduated, he didn't sit with the guests. He was right up front with Terry to receive his own bachelor of science degree. Both concentrated in business administration at SIU-SW.

Mueth and his son had four classes together during their college careers and did some studying together. "Dad made better grades than I in all but one of those four classes," Terry said. "I'm afraid I didn't spend too much time studying. I'm young. I wanted to run around. During the last year, however, I became more interested in college and my grades improved."

"I only planned to go to SIU-SW one quarter," Terry said. "Until I entered the university I hadn't really been interested in a degree. I just enrolled to please my parents."

Studying for Orville Mueth did not come quite so easily, he admits. "English and math were difficult. I had gotten into some bad English habits and I found I had to spend at least two hours of study for every course I was taking. I think the usual amount is one hour for each course hour. It was difficult at first for me to comprehend and to retain what I was reading so I had to work harder. I was so enthusiastic I tried to learn too much too quickly."

Business Easier

"Business courses were easier," he said. "Because that's where my interest was." Orville Mueth received the Owen Jacquemin Sullivan Award in Business Administration on Honors Day May 21.

The elder Mueth, who has a son, David, in Collinsville High School and two married daughters, is a materials handling engineer for Monsanto's Sauget Plant. He has been with the company since 1948, formerly as an electrician and union officer, working by the hour.

"In August of 1967," he said, "Monsanto offered to finance my college education if I would go on a salary basis. I couldn't pass up an opportunity like that."

He entered SIU-SW in September and earned his degree in four years and nine months, taking 11 to 12 hours a quarter while he continued working.

"My family sacrificed many outside activities while I was going to school," he said. "My wife was understanding and her cooperation made the going easier."

Army Veteran

A 1944 graduate of East St.

GRADUATES. Terry Mueth, left, and his father, Orville Mueth, examine a graduate catalog at SIU-SW. Both graduated from the local university Saturday.

Louis High School, Orville Mueth is a graduate of Ranken Trade School in St. Louis. During World War II he spent two years in the Army, serving in the European theater.

A 1968 graduate of Collinsville High School, Terry Mueth works for Nesco Steel Barrel Co. in Granite City as a general plant worker. He hopes to find a job soon in business. His secondary concentration, like his father's is personnel work. He is also interested in computer science. Terry says he would like to remain in this area but is willing to work anywhere.

Both Orville and Terry Mueth plan to go to graduate school eventually. Orville is considering going into personnel work with Monsanto at another location. His company wants him to remain in his present situation so he will give serious consideration to the fields of materials and personnel before deciding on a concentration in graduate school.

Ricky Dixon Graduate Of Sight Saving School

Ricky Dean Dixon, son of Mrs. Martha Dixon, 1807 (rear) Maple St., is one of 21 seniors who graduated from the Illinois Braille and Sight Saving School this month in Jacksonville.

He is president of his junior class and also held class offices in his sophomore and senior years of high school. He was active in band, dramatics and Student Council and a four-year participant in the school's work program. He is considering either college or going into business upon graduation.

Floyd R. Cargill, chief of services for the blind and visually handicapped in Illinois' Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, delivered the commencement address. He is an alumnus and former instructor at the Braille and Sight Saving School.

Supt. Jack R. Hartong praised the unusually large 1972 graduating class for "achieving academic success while also demonstrating concern for those matters of importance to a young man's youth—specifically, improving the quality of life for all."

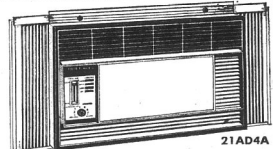

Receives Master Degree

Karen E. Parsagian of Granite City was among students receiving 4,000 graduate and undergraduate degrees at Stanford University, Stanford, Calif., this week. She received a master of arts degree in teaching.

The school, presently in its 123rd year, is administered by the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services. It serves blind and partially sighted youngsters whose home communities cannot offer them adequate educational opportunities or whose individual needs are best served in a residential setting.

Supt. Kenneth R. Mangan, Ed.D., praised the graduating class for academic accomplishments and regard for others.

Presently in its 133rd year, the School for the Deaf is administered by the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services. The school serves deaf and hearing-handicapped youngsters.

Planning Fellowship Awarded to Student

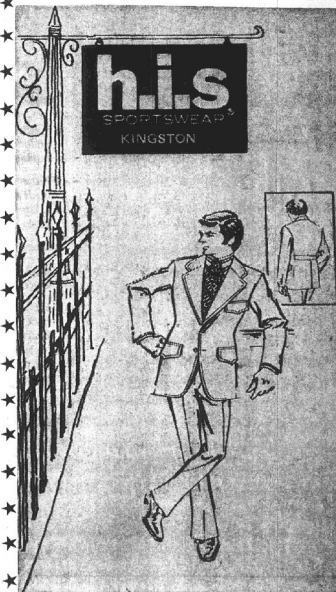

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has awarded a planning fellowship to Tom Tinch, a student at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern.

Tinch, a resident of the Tower Lake Apartments, is one of about 100 recipients from throughout the country. The fellowships are awarded for graduate work in urban studies. He plans to begin his graduate studies in September at the University of Southern California.

Tinch, whose chief interest is city planning, is a research assistant in transportation planning for the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council in St. Louis. He expects to receive a bachelor's degree in geography and urban services this summer from SIU-SW.

Engine Trouble for Illinois Demos As McGovern Races to Nomination

By KEN WATSON
Copley News Service

Springfield — Illinois Democracy is about to be left high and dry.

Sen. George S. McGovern's sudden and amazing surge to win the Democratic presidential nomination has left some of the big names of Illinois politics looking politically silly.

There are snickers beneath the Statehouse Dome that Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley and U. S. Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III might just as well stay home as go to the party's national convention at Miami Beach July 10.

Both have already fought and lost as far as influencing the national ticket is concerned.

The mayor, who must be wondering by now if 1972 is really his year, is attracting national attention in an anti-McGovern — Illinois delegate fight, at the very time McGovern is soaring to the top in the presidential sweepstakes.

Far from being greeted at the Florida conclave as a kingmaker of the next Democratic president, Daley is now likely to be coolly received as the last of the old-time political bosses, sadly out of touch with the times. With the McGovern sun flooded the convention scene, few Democrats of importance will want to be identified with a man who was definitely not in his corner in the early skirmishing for delegates. Daley will never be able to convince anyone he looks with favor on a McGovern presidential candidacy.

All along, the mayor has been flirting with the idea of backing fading Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine, and is also widely believed to have retained lingering hopes that another Kennedy, Edward, might yet make the grade for 1972.

The Daley fight with the McGovern delegates may well be another note of "Taps" in his Last Hurrah.

Nor can that old Daley rival, Adlai Stevenson III, feel very happy about any McGovern triumph. Adlai gambled early on Muskie and now finds himself back on the bench right beside the mayor.

In spite of all the denial, the feeling persists at the Statehouse that Stevenson had high hopes of landing the vice-presidential nomination as a step forward to realizing the goal that eluded his late father, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson II — the White House itself.

Should the McGovern star continue to rise and should he become the next President, Illinois Democrats are not likely—as Paul Powell used to say—to find themselves "eating at the first table."

But the apparent McGovern surge also poses more immediate and practical troubles for the state's party leaders.

The Illinois cause will not be helped to any large extent by a ticket headed by McGovern. He may well prove far too liberal for a state which traditionally leans conservative even among the Democrats.

The still powerful Daley organization — already far from enthused about governor candidate Daniel Walker can scarcely be expected to go all out for another political maverick.

A McGovern candidacy could leave Illinois Democrats split about three ways.

There will be the strong liberals, all-out for McGovern but increasingly skeptical about a Walker now attempting to make the usual election year shift to in-state conservatism.

Secondly, the Stevenson moderates, normally loyal to the party but unenthused about McGovern or Senate candidate Roman C. Pucinski or Walker — and decidedly bitter about the Cook County state's attorney candidacy of Edward Hanrahan.

And last of all, the tattered legions of Mayor Daley, unhappy about everyone except Hanrahan, whom the machine tried to dump in that incredible March primary.

Methodist Youth Plans Paper Drive Project

The Youth Fellowship of the United Methodist Church of Madison will collect old newspapers in the parking lot in back of the church from 12 noon until 3 p.m. Saturday, Mrs. Sue Bogue, sponsor, announced today.

The project is an effort on the part of the youth of the church to help to preserve natural resources, Mrs. Bogue said. They plan to collect old newspapers the third Saturday of each month during the summer. The newspapers will be trucked to a paper company in the area for recycling.

Mrs. Bogue asked that persons bringing newspapers to the church tie them in bundles, place them in grocery bags, or stack them in cardboard boxes. For more information, donors may call 876-3555.
